RE: 2013 COACHES SYMPOSIUM

The SHSAA Coaches Symposium will be held Monday and Tuesday August 19th & 20th, 2013 at Evan Hardy Collegiate in Saskatoon.

As part of the pre-conference sessions, Train to Train - Competition Advanced for Basketball will be offered. Paul Humbert will be presenting this module. Paul has presented the Intro to Competition module in the past and is excited to have the opportunity to present the next level of coaching development for Basketball Canada. He brings experience as a player, coach, teacher, parent and administrator to his presentations. This session will run Monday from 8:00 - 5:00 and Tuesday from 8:00 - 12:00. (This session can be taken exclusive of the Symposium - please contact the SHSAA for details)

Please note that there are other pre-conference program sessions available on Monday including:

SPORT TAPING—Bruce Craven—7 hour session to teach basic sport taping skills. This very popular session has been offered by Bruce for a number of years at the Symposium.

NCCP VOLLEYBALL—Adam Ewart—Focus on developing coach by providing basic technical knowledge of coaching volleyball. Completion of Level 1 prepares you to take inexperienced athletes and provide them with safe, educational training sessions. Participant must pay cost of manual.

NCCP COMPETITION TO INTRODUCTION PART A&B ACCELERATED—8 hour NCCP multisport workshop condenses 26 hours of training into a specifically designed workshop for teacher-coaches who have a Phys Ed degree or combined Kinesiology/Education degree. Upon completion of this workshop you will receive credit for 6 NCCP Comp - Intro modules (Making Ethical Decisions, Practice planning, Nutrition, Teaching & Learning, Designing a Basic Sport Program & Basic Mental Skills). This workshop is the equivalent replacement of the old Level 1 and 2 NCCP Theory. Participant must pay cost of manual.

NCCP MAKING ETHICAL DECISIONS—A workshop that teaches coaches to analyze a situation that has moral implications and learn how to apply an effective ethical decision making framework. The MED is a required module for all certification in the new NCCP. Coaches who have been trained or certified in the old NCCP Levels will need MED to keep their NCCP certification valid. Participant must pay cost of manual.

SIAAA LPT502C - This is a detailed course that addresses school athletic/academic philosophy, administrative organization, coach appointment, budgeting, scheduling, publicity and promotion, management of athletes, parents and others, transportation policies and issues, parent conflict, legal foundations, monthly checklists and more. One of the key resources available to course attendees is CD with over 700 pages of useful information, forms, detailed letter templates, sample policies etc. (this course can be taken exclusive of the Symposium - please contact the SHSAA office for details)

OFFICIATING BASKETBALL

OFFICIATING VOLLEYBALL

The Symposium committee has made arrangements to have the following presenters available for the basketball technical sessions:

Jill Humbert—Jill has just come off of a year that saw her serve as the interim head coach of the U of S Huskies. Jill has played the game at the international level as a member of Team Canada at the World University Games.

Nathan Schellenberg—Nathan has spent 11 years as an assistant coach with the U of S Huskies. He is also the Director of Basketball Development at Basketball Saskatchewan and has spent many summers involved in coaching the BSI provincial teams.

Wendy Benson—Wendy has been involved with coaching children at the introductory stage of the game right up to the elite level of CIS. Wendy's coaching experience includes both Sr. Boys and Sr. Girls high school programs in Saskatoon as well as involvement in the BSI provincial teams.

Barclay Patterson—Barclay is a teacher and coach at Evan Hardy. His boys basketball teams have experienced much success over the past few years including city championships and numerous HOOPLA appearances. Barclay will definitely bring the high school coach perspective to his sessions.

Four sessions of intermediate basketball presentations and four advanced basketball sessions will be available.
